DIRECT LINES TO SUBSTATION ASKED BY LOCAL TOWNS

The Township Chamber of Commerce has been informed via a report from the Hayward office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company that direct telephone line service from each of the eight communities of the township to the sheriff's substation on Fremont Avenue will cost approximately $238.50 per month.

At one of its recent meetings the Chamber requested cost estimates for the direct line service from the telephone company as a possibility of speeding up calls to the sheriff's department.

The estimated monthly costs, as read by Secretary Gene Manning at last Wednesday's meeting, are: Alvarado, $39.75; Decoto, $27.25; Irvington, $20.75; Newark, $23.25; Mission San Jose, $60.25, and Warm Springs, $67.25. Niles and Centerville have direct line service into the substation.

The matter was ordered tabled for further study to determine how such a project could be financed.

Secretary Manning was instructed to forward a letter to the telephone company announcing that all Chambers of Commerce of the township have endorsed the plan presented by Maurice Marks of Mission San Jose for the consolidation of telephone subscribers names.

Under the proposed system, which has been requested when the new directory is printed, all names of local subscribers would be listed alphabetically under Washington Township. Following each name would be the mailing address and an abbreviation indicating the town.

It was announced that cards have been returned from six local organizations indicating their willingness to assist in the establishment of a regional park at Niles Canyon, a project first presented by the Niles Women's Civic Club.

CIVIL DEFENSE ALARM TEST THURSDAY, DEC. 6

A test of the civil defense alarm system throughout the state will be staged at 11 a.m. Thursday, December 6, according to Lt. Stanley Petersen, assistant coordinator of the unincorporated areas of Alameda County.

All fire departments of the township will blow their sirens promptly at 11 a.m. Residents of this area who do not hear the siren are urged to notify the fire chief of their fire district.

NEW NILES POST OFFICE COMPLETED

Although the new post office building at the corner of Second and J Streets, Niles, was completed this week, Postmaster E. E. Enos expressed doubt yesterday that it would be occupied until after the first of the year.

Enos stated that traveling crews from the post office department will be sent here to install the fixtures, and as yet he has had no indication from Washington, D. C., that the crews have been scheduled here.

He expressed doubt that the department would approve a move during the heavy rush of the Christmas season.

All the furniture for the new building has arrived and the move depends entirely upon final clearance from Washington, Enos said.

SCOUT DISTRICT WILL BE FORMED HERE NEXT WEEK

The newly designated Southern Alameda County Boy Scout District, as yet unnamed, will be officially formed at a dinner meeting at the Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center Tuesday evening.

The announcement was made by Judge Allen G. Norris of Centerville, president of the Oakland Area Boy Scout Council. More than 100 Scouters and their wives are expected to attend the dinner, scheduled for 7 p.m.

Following the dinner the group will elect officers and select a name for the new district, which is comprised of Washington, Murray and Pleasanton Townships.

Formation of the district was authorized last month by the board of the Oakland Area Council in view of expanding Scout programs and increased population in the southern portion of the county.

The group will elect a district chairman, two vice-chairmen and one representative from each of the 11 communities of the district. Fred Duffie of Niles has already been named district commissioner.

H. F. Anderson, newly appointed executive of the new district, points out that there will be two separate organizations in charge of scouting under the new setup. These will be the commissioner's staff, in charge of program and training, and the district committee, which is being organized to assist those actively working with the Scouts.

Localites already named to the commissioner's staff include: Duffie, Rev. Arthur Freeman, Centerville; William Hildebrand, Newark, and George Scamman of Irvington.

POSTMASTER ENOS TALKS TO ROTARY

The speaker at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Niles Rotary Club was Niles' own postmaster, E. E. Enos.

Enos, who is president of the California Postmasters' Association, gave a talk on his recent trip to Washington, D. C., where he attended the national convention.

In the short time that the convention was in session the postmasters were addressed by the president, vice-president, several members of the president's cabinet and numerous senators and representatives, Enos said.

LOCAL DANCE BAND ON TV NETWORK

Local television fans got an unexpected thrill Sunday afternoon when Kenny Faria of Centerville, and his dance orchestra, were featured over KPIX television channel 5 on a fifteen minute program.

Faria plays the saxophone and clarinet in the four-piece band and Frank Gygax of Newark plays the trumpet. The other two men in the unit are from Oakland.

The band, which plays regularly at "Our House," night club in San Leandro, was praised for its rendition of three specialty numbers.

NEW SECRETARY FOR KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

At the last regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 170, it was agreed that Ernest Phippen, chancellor commander, take over the duties of financial secretary until the election of new officers the first of next year.

RECRUITMENT OF BLOCK WARDENS UNDER WAY HERE

Spurred by Sheriff H. P. Gleason's plan to start warden training classes in Southern Alameda County after the first of the year, recruitment of men and women block wardens is now under way in Washington Township.

Minimum goal set by Gleason's civil defense staff is four wardens to each block or rural neighborhood, preferably two men and two women. Women can contribute much to the civil defense program, the sheriff said.

He announced that the warden training classes will open for residents of Alvarado, Newark and Centerville on February 25, and in Decoto, Niles and Irvington on March 3.

Each prospective warden will be required to take a ten-hour training course, consisting of weekly two-hour classes for five weeks, directed by Sheriff's Lieutenants Floyd Heffron of Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center and Stanley N. Petersen, Gleason's civil defense aide. Teachers will be chosen from the list of sheriff's officers and deputies holding adult education teaching credentials.

For men and women unable to attend evening classes, special afternoon sessions are contemplated, Heffron reported.

Alameda county school officials are now designating school facilities to be used as training centers in each district.

Warren Gravestock, principal of the Washington Evening School, was among the south county civil defense and school department officials who attended the final planning session for the program at Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center last week.

THIS 'GUESS WHO' MAY PUZZLE YOU

Of course you knew immediately, when Livermore was mentioned as his home town, that last week's "Guess Who" was Clarence Crane of Niles. Or did you? See what you can do with this week's "Guess Who." For the correct answer read through the pages of The Register. You'll find the answer if you keep looking.

He is probably the only man in Washington Township who has had a trout fly named after him! (If there are any others we would like to hear about them.

He took a four-year course at Stanford University in three years, receiving his A.B. degree at the end of that time. He also received his Master's Degree from the same university.

He was employed in the U. S. Forest Service for two years, and knows all there is to know about the diseases that ravage California's famed Sequoia Sempirvirens redwoods.

He experienced 32 air raids during World War II at Okinawa. Also at Okinawa he went through a 135-mile an hour typhoon.

He has traveled 32,000 miles, 12,000 of those miles being on water.

At one time he coached football at Visalia High School and at Visalia Junior College.

Although he is in middle life, he still likes to play tennis. He also likes to play golf and fish.

He says about himself that though he's getting along, he still likes to fight—"I haven't lost any of my fight, but there's nobody left to fight with."

The present position he has in Washington Township occupies most of his time, and most of his thought, as township expansion has been a headache to him in several ways.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT SET FOR DECEMBER 23

The students of Washington Union High School will present their annual Christmas pageant on Sunday, December 23, in the school auditorium, it was announced this week by Joseph Roberts, director.

This year's pageant is entitled, "The Shepherd's Star," a nativity play with music by Janet Katherine Smith.

FIREMEN'S GROUP TO FETE ROGERS

An estimated 100 fire-fighters of Alameda County and their wives, members of the Alameda County Association of Firemen, are expected to attend the annual dinner meeting, election and installation of officers at the Newark Pavilion Saturday evening.

The group will pay a special tribute to Fred Rogers, who resigned November 1 as chief of the Centerville Fire Department after 34 years of service.

Chief Tom Ducey of San Lorenzo Village is the out-going president.

Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., followed by the business meeting and special entertainment.

A special guest will be Captain Richard Condon, officer-in-charge of the Washington Township sheriff's substation.

FIRST KOREAN WAR DEAD RETURNED; RITES SATURDAY

Funeral services will be held here Saturday for Corporal Elidio A. Cunha, 27, who was killed September 4 in Central Korea while fighting with the 17th Infantry, Buffalo Regiment.

The body of the young soldier was returned here via troop transport this week, the first of Washington Township's war victims to be brought home.

Corporal Cunha was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cunha of Newark; husband of Mrs. Mary Cunha of Mission San Jose; father of Nancy Lee and Herminia Leona Cunha. He was a native of Fall River, Mass.

A rosary will be recited at the parlors of the Chapel of the Palms in Centerville at 8 o'clock this evening (Friday), followed by services under the direction of the American Legion and V.F.W. Posts.

Funeral services will be held from the parlors of the mortuary at 9 a.m. Saturday, followed by a requiem mass at St. Edward's Church, Newark, at 9:30.

Burial will be at Holy Ghost Cemetery, Centerville, with full military honors under the direction of Washington Township American Legion Post.

DEATH CAR DRIVER GETS YEAR IN JAIL

Maurice Gonzales, 22, of Niles, was sentenced to a year in the Alameda County jail Tuesday as an outgrowth of an auto crash that killed two persons in Oakland on September 16.

Gonzales, who pleaded guilty to the felony manslaughter charge, also was sentenced to five years probation by Alameda Superior Judge Wade Snook.

Gonzales' car smashed into the rear of one driven by Theodore Bennett, 35, of 4207 Arroyuell Avenue, Oakland, at East Shore Freeway and Twenty-third Avenue.

Bennett was thrown to the pavement and killed instantly.

His companion, Mrs. Martha Phillips, 53, of the same address, was burned to death inside the automobile.

STAFF MEMBER TO SPEAK AT NEWARK PTA

Miss E. Luney Ryan, general supervisor of the county staff, will address the Newark P.T.A. unit at their regular meeting next Tuesday at 2 p.m. in one of the classrooms.

Miss Ryan's topic will be the Sunrise School for cerebral palsied children. Located in Hayward, the school is an Alameda County institution, and Miss Ryan has had actual experience in working with the handicapped pupils there.

Recently the Newark unit approved a monetary donation to the school, requested by the Phoebe Hearst Council, and here will be a golden opportunity for members to learn how their donation was used and why it was needed.

The members and officers will welcome any and all non-members who are interested and can come to the meeting.

LOCAL RESIDENTS GET $85,364 FOR YULE SHOPPING

The gay, festive spirit of the Yule season settled down over Washington Township this week, accompanied by its colorful lights, sparkling tinsel, scent of pine boughs and air of suspense.

Managers of the four banks of the township revealed that they have mailed Christmas Club checks amounting to $85,364 to residents of this area, revealing that shoppers will have more than $10,000 over the $75,129 mailed out last year.

Chambers of Commerce in each of the communities are busy at work installing the Christmas lights and decorations in the business sections.

Local merchants have crammed their stores with the latest lines of merchandise suitable for Christmas gifts and have gaily decorated their stores and display windows.

An apparent change has even come over the youngsters as they assume a new attitude, which will probably hold forth until at least December 26.

Despite some war-time shortages shoppers will have little, if any, difficulty finding the items on their Christmas lists.

HOME OWNERS MAP ASSOCIATION PLAN

Residents of the new Hillview Crest Tract at Decoto met this week to outline the formation of a Home Owners Association.

The Association, a non-profit cooperative corporation, would be open only to home-owners of the tract for the purpose of maintenance and improvements deemed necessary in the housing unit.

The Declaration of Covenant which the group has drawn up proposes an annual charge or assessment not to exceed $25 per year to each property owner.

The funds raised by the Association would provide for entrance gateways, lighting, maintenance of grounds for public use within the tract, funds for a site for a community club house, playgrounds, care of vacant lots, weed and rodent control, sweeping and sprinkling of the streets, and many other municipal type services.

Mrs. Jean Thompson of 1385 Carrol Drive has been named to serve as temporary secretary of the group until an election is held.

POSTAL RATES TO INCREASE JAN. 1

Abolishment of the penny post card and increases in some other costs of mailing will become effective January 1.

Beginning January 1 post cards will cost two cents and special delivery stamps will rise from 15 cents to 20 cents. Charges for most post office special services, such as insured and registered mail and C.O.D. deliveries, will also be increased to bring in an estimated $26,000,000 a year in extra revenue.

The new law does not change the three-cent rate for ordinary first class letters or affect existing air mail rates.

A 10 per cent boost in second class mailing charges for newspapers and magazines becomes effective April 1. The rate will jump another 10 per cent April 1, 1953, and 10 per cent April 1, 1954, for a total increase of 30 per cent.

An increase from one-cent apiece to one and one-half cents for bulk mailing of third class mail, largely circulars and advertising, becomes effective June 30.

WARM SPRINGS SOLDIER INJURED IN KOREA

Mr. and Mrs. Arnulfo A. Durazo of Warm Springs received a telegram last week-end that their son, Pfc. Albert A. Durazo, had been injured in action in Korea. However, in a letter received this week the young soldier told his folks that it was not serious and he was back at the front lines again.

Centerville Gets Steel Allocation for School

The Centerville Elementary School District has been informed by authorities in Washington, D. C., that it will receive its allocation of controlled materials for the new school building.

The site for the new school building, on Thornton Avenue, has been approved by the Department of Education. The State Department of Finance has approved the purchase price, and with the approval of the district attorney's office of Alameda County, the Board of Trustees of the district have completed the purchase of the eleven-acre site from August and Mary Davilla.

Preliminary plans have been approved by the State Department of Education and final plans are now being checked by the Division of Architecture. Upon approval of final plans the trustees will proceed with the calling of bids for construction.

Tom Maloney, district superintendent of schools, and the members of the Board, Judge Allen G. Norris, Mrs. Raymond Rodrigues and Allan Walton, paid particular praise to the assistance rendered by Senator William F. Knowland and Representative George P. Miller in getting the allocation of controlled materials.

Maloney pointed out that the district has experienced tremendous growth and several additional subdivisions will be under way in the very near future.

Even with the addition of the new classrooms the Trustees are faced with the problem of continued expansion and have been formulating plans accordingly, Maloney revealed this week.

$1,000 IN SCRIP WILL BE REDEEMED

A total of $1,000 in Washington High School Memorial Stadium scrip is to be redeemed next week, it has been announced by Warren Gravestock, president of the Stadium Executive Committee.

A drawing of names of persons whose scrip will be called for redemption will be held Wednesday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m., in Room 2 at the high school.

The $1,000 in gate receipts from this season's football games will bring the total of redeemed scrip to $6,000 since the $10,500 in scrip was sold here in 1947 to finance the cost of lighting the stadium.

Gravestock stated that but $4,510 remains in outstanding scrip, held for the most part by organizations of the township. The remaining $940 in scrip held by individuals is expected to be paid off at the close of the 1952 football season.

He added that $700 of the scrip purchased from student body funds will not be redeemed, as the fund has benefitted from the increased gate receipts through the past years and will continue to gain in future years.

WATER DISTRICT CHANGES BILLING

All local residents served by the Alameda County Water District will receive a new type of bill after the first of the year.

Under the new system, now being readied at the office in the county building on Fremont Avenue, the bills will be mailed to all subscribers. A section of the postal card must be torn off and returned to the district office with the payment.

The new system is designed as a time-saver, replacing the former method of personal house-to-house collections.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR MEN'S CLUB DEC. 6

The annual Hi-Jinx of the Washington Township Men's Club will be held Thursday, December 6, beginning at 6:45 p.m. at the International Kitchen.

Bill Helm and Loren Godwin, co-chairmen of the affair, said this week that they have arranged for a visit by Santa Claus to distribute gifts. A full evening of entertainment has been promised.

Members are urged to forward their reservation to Karl Nordvik at Centerville not later than Tuesday.

TELEPHONE RATES HIKED; BILLING SYSTEM ALTERED

Telephone subscribers of this area will note several changes in their bills received after December 21, both in amounts and appearances.

The Pacific Telephone Company has been authorized by the California Public Utilities Commission to adjust its rates to cover added wage costs.

The new rate became effective on November 1, adding 30 cents per month on residential individual lines, 25 cents on two-party lines, 20 cents on other party lines and suburban service.

Business service rates were boosted 75 cents per month for individual lines, 50 cents for two-party lines and suburban service.

It was also announced that a ten-cent local message rate, in connection with semi-public and public telephone service, will be effective when necessary physical changes of coin box telephones can be completed.

Meanwhile, a temporary surcharge of three per cent is added to the regular exchange service charges. The surcharge will be discontinued when the rate of 1 cents per local message on coin box service becomes effective not later than June 30, 1952.

The transition from the present toll charge to a message unit system becomes effective on December 21, after which time toll calls will no longer be listed on the monthly statements.

S. D. Smith, manager of the Hayward office, said yesterday that basically the system will bring about a slight reduction on toll calls between township communities and many other towns and cities of this area listed in the folders enclosed in the last statements.

The new charge is arrived at in a manner sometimes used by novices in picking a would-be winner at the races. It works like this—the former toll charge is divided by five and that figure multiplied by the new basic unit rate of 4 cents.

For example, a toll call from Niles to San Jose, under the old charge, would be 20 cents. The 20 cent toll call, when divided by 5, gives a quotient of 4, which, when multiplied by 4.4 cents, results in a charge of 17.6 cents or 18 cents.

Pioneer Township History Related by Thomas Wauhab

The following article was written up from notes taken during an interview with Mr. Thomas Wauhab. Mr. Wauhab, who was born in Mission San Jose on November 29, 1855, still spends long hours in the saddle riding the hills. Keen, alert, and with a remarkable memory, this man is quite probably Alameda County's oldest native born citizen. On the afternoon of August 22, 1950, Mr. Wauhab was interviewed by Mrs. Charles Overacker and Paul Power regarding the early history of Washington Township.

"When my father first came here he worked for Don Agustin Alviso. Alviso owned the Patterson ranch and more then (Rancho Potero de Los Cerritos). Alviso was a fine man—kind and generous. He would do anything for you. Many a man he helped. He loaned money to men who never paid him back and he died poor. His son married Robert Livermore's daughter.

"Joaquin Murieta worked with my father about three years on the Alviso place. My father liked him. He was a pleasant spoken, hard working man. The troubles he had later on changed him. Some miners killed his wife and left him for dead. After that he was never the same.

"It wasn't Joaquin Murieta that Captain Love killed in 1853. Love wanted the reward money. My father paid one dollar to see what was supposed to be Joaquin Murieta's head in a bottle up in San Francisco. As soon as he saw it, he knew it wasn't Murieta's. Murieta was a Castillian. He was light complected and fair haired. The head in the bottle was dark and swarthy. My father knew it wasn't Joaquin Murieta's head. You can't work with a man for three years and not know him like you would a member of your own family.

"Joaquin Murieta's sister lived in a three-room adobe house that Vallejo built. It isn't there any more. The railroad covered it up when they built the embankment. Her name was Vietta Bustemmata. She was a widow. Her husband was killed by Indians in Mexico and Joaquin Murieta brought her to California.

"She had a common law husband. He had a shop in Niles where he made spurs. I still have some he made for me. She had a son, Tomoso Bustemmata, who went by the name of Procopio Murieta too. He was fair like Joaquin Murieta and had red hair. He didn't turn out very well. He was a bandit later, and some people called him "Red Dick" on account of his hair. He was living in the adobe in Niles in 1877.

"After my father saw Joaquin Murieta's head in the bottle he went to see Vietta Bustemmata. He said, 'Videtta, what did you tell them that that head was Joaquin's for? You knew it wasn't.'

"All she said was, 'What would you have done in my place?' And my father knew that she was protecting her brother and he didn't ask her any more questions and she never mentioned it again.

"Then in 1857 my father met Joaquin Murieta in Colorado and talked with him.

"I remember the Overacker family well. I knew all of them. There was an adobe on their place in Niles that they lived in while they built the big house. They built it in 1852. Howard, who was supervisor, built himself a fine home in Centerville later. Michael lived on in the Niles place. His son, Charles and Charles Shinn were the first ones around here to go up to the University of California before it was moved to Berkeley.

"Don J. J. Vallejo never lived in the adobe on the California Nursery grounds. He built it for his workmen just like he built the adobe at the mill and the one at the mouth of the canyon.

"His place in the Mission was beautiful. It was a big place with about eighteen rooms. It had walls three feet thick and long windows. There was a double wooden porch all around it. The roses grew all over the fences and covered the house and the roof. There was a big grapevine on the side porch beside.

"The house was right up to the road right across from the church. There was a big garden in the back and a bigger one on the side toward Niles filled with roses and flowers. Old J. J. Vallejo's son got a big boulder up in the hills and put it on the corner to keep people from running into the fence. He had to bring it down in a carreta.

"The house was full of walnut and mahogany furniture that had come from back east by boat. The Vallejos had lots of money at one time, and they had the best. Later on the daughter, Mrs. Kern, had to give music lessons. They rented part of the house to the John Turners, and I rented a room on the corner for my butcher market. I had the market there from 1880 until 1883.

"Don Vallejo was a dark man, swarthy. He used to wear a serape on cold days and stand out on the porch. When it was nice out he would dress up in white with his sombrero on and a dark red sash around his waist.

"The Vallejo girls were all good musicians. Mrs. Kern sang for all the weddings and funerals. She also played the organ for all the services at the Catholic Church in the Mission.

"I think that Don Vallejo was buried in the graveyard at the Mission. The marker on his grave may have rotted away or disappeared if it was wood.

"There were a lot of fine people in Warm Springs—the Curtners, the Power family, the Twohigs, the Beards, the Higueras and a lot of others. Curtner and John Power raised thoroughbred horses. They had a lot of trouble, though, with cattle thieves in early days.

"John Power was a fine man. He bought three hundred acres or more from the Higuera family. At one time there was a fence on the Power place made of animal bones. There was an adobe house on the place that the Higueras built, but John Power built himself a fine home of lumber that he had shipped around the Horn. It was away back from the road with a row of trees leading up to it.

"I knew all that family well, but I knew Tom Power the best. He was a lawyer. Maurice Power became district attorney down in Tulare County. Both those boys went to Washington College in Irvington and then to Santa Clara University. There were three daughters—all handsome women. They went to a convent school in San Jose.

"Yes, I knew all those families in Warm Springs. I used to work around Warm Springs a lot in those days. Then the threshing crews didn't have a cook wagon and we were fed by the family whose place we were working on.

"John Horner bought the first harvester in the county. It never worked though. When he went to the Sandwich Islands he sold it to Best in San Leandro. Best was pretty smart about machinery. He worked on the harvester until he got it working after he changed some of the parts."

HAYWARD CONCERT PROGRAM DEC. 4

Community Concert artist Mona Paulee will be heard in the Hayward Union High School auditorium on December 4.

Miss Paulee's mezzo-soprano voice has been acclaimed by thousands of American audiences for its warmth and versatility. Perhaps most of her exciting roles were those of Juliette and Antonia which she sang while on tour with the Metropolitan Opera Company. However, her greatest triumphs were scored in New York recitals, which were heralded by the Metropolitan press as musical events of the first order.

The Hayward Concert membership may well anticipate with relish this beautiful young American artists whose concert programs appeal both to the musical sophisticates and those who enjoy more the ballads and light-opera favorites.

SERVICES TODAY FOR BENNIE ARROYO

Trip to the South

Mrs. Stuart Kiernan, after several months of acting nurse for her husband who was injured in a bus crash, took a vacation to the southern part of California last week, following Mr. Kiernan's return to work as station agent for the Southern Pacific at Centerville. She returned home after a week's visit with relatives down there.

ATTENDANCE RECORD SPURS CHRISTMAS PREPARATION

Except for special occasions, last Sunday's attendance at the morning worship of the Centerville Presbyterian Church set an all-time record in the church's 98 years of existence. One hundred and twenty worshipers packed the little white church.

In keeping with this surge of new life, the pastor announced today that detailed plans are being completed for a full month of spiritual preparation culminating in a special Christmas Eve service. This Sunday, the opening of Advent season, will officially mark the beginning of the month of preparation with the subject of the sermon "Ties that Bind—or—When is Faith Real?"

A Happy Birthday

Birthdays are fun—when you're only six. Roy Garcia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Garcia of Niles, celebrated his sixth birthday at a party at his home last Saturday and had so much fun he is still talking about it.

Games, and the traditional party refreshments, were the order of the day. A candy tree provided the highlight of the refreshment table.

Those attending included: Kinnita Garcia, Brenda Garcia, Lenny Smith, Timmy Mello, Jackie and Christine Guerra, Jerry and Hal Janssen, Harry Cavanaugh, Veronica McElvain and Jimmy Focht. Adults who looked on and enjoyed the youngsters' fun were Mrs. Mary Garcia and Mrs. Rafael Guerra.

See Sonja Henie

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Korell of Niles were among those who were properly enthusiastic over Sonja Henie's ice revue in San Francisco. They attended the Saturday night performance.

Whether it's a new bracelet clasp or a major overhaul on a fine watch, we're the ones to see.

McWhirters Return from Visit to Polio Hospital

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. McWhirter of Centerville returned home Tuesday after having been in Southern California to visit their son, Tom, who has been—and still is—in an iron lung at the hospital in Santa Monica for polio patients.

Mrs. McWhirter reported that he is making progress, as he is now able to move one arm and both legs a little. "His morale is wonderful," she said, "but the ravages of his pain and mental suffering are beginning to show in his face." She expressed gratitude for the messages of good cheer which are still pouring in. She wanted their friends to know that Tom's baby, who was stricken at the same time, is now able to walk again, and will not, fortunately, have to wear a brace. He will have to remain in the hospital for another six months however.

Return from Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Orsetti of Centerville are still talking about the wonderful trip to Mexico which they recently completed. They motored down as far as Mexico City, making a three weeks' trip of it. They reported that the weather was excellent all the way. On the way home they stopped off at Carlsbad Caverns and did some sight-seeing in New Mexico, having seen all the wonders of Old Mexico.

Lorin Mohn and Bride On Honeymoon in South

The Presbyterian Church in San Leandro was the setting for the Sunday nuptials of Dolores Stultz of San Leandro and Lorin Mohn of Niles.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parton of San Leandro and granddaughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Mendenhall of Niles, selected a ballerina length white satin brocade for her wedding, and carried a bouquet of bouvardia and white carnations.

Her cousin, Louise Judson of Niles, was her maid of honor. She was attired in lavendar and carried a bouquet of bouvardia and lavendar carnations. The other attendant, a school friend of the bride, was also in lavendar, but of a darker hue.

Doing best man honors for his brother was Milton Mohn, who will soon be assuming the main role as he is to marry Jan Nall in December. Ushers were Carl Pierce and John Conner.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Alta Mira Club in San Leandro, and the newlyweds are now on a trip in the southern part of the state. Upon their return they will make their home in San Leandro.

The bride is employed with an insurance company in Oakland, and her husband will take a job at Westvaco, starting Monday.

On Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. John Brahmst spent Thanksgiving week motoring in the southern part of the state. They spent a couple of days at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, motored on to Palm Springs, then drove on over to Las Vegas. Enroute home they stopped off at San Luis Obispo to visit their son, Bob, and his wife.

Goes to Rhode Island

Don Kirkbride, a navy chaplain, left Monday night by plane for Newport, Rhode Island, where he will take a two month training course for chaplain duties. His wife, during his absence, will stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mohn.

At Son's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Mohn of Pocatello, Idaho, were in the township over the week-end, having arrived to attend their son, Lorin's, wedding last Sunday.

CHARM CLASS GETS UNDER WAY HERE, PROVING POPULAR WITH JUNIOR WOMEN

A charm class for junior women ages thirteen to twenty-one, is the latest addition to the cultural life of Washington Township.

Mindful of the fact that teen-age girls and young women have problems of poise, personality, etiquette—and even dating—Mrs. Mabel Korell of Niles has volunteered her services as the leader of the group, which is sponsored by the women's department of the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints of San Leandro.

"Members of the class do not have to be affiliated with the church," said Mrs. Korell. "The class meets at the homes of differents girls, and the only religious part of the class comes in the recitation of the Lord's Prayer at the beginning of every meeting. This is to infuse a little of the spiritual aspect of charm into the minds of the girls before we launch off into the more physical aspects. In spite of definite rules for standing, walking, sitting and other requisites for making a girl gracious as well as graceful, we nevertheless strive to impress upon the girl the value of complete naturalness. Above all, we don't like to see a girl indulge in studied poses."

Mrs. Korell stated that group lessons in charm seem to be more effective than the reminders that the girls receive from their mothers every day. "Group lessons are more enjoyable," she said, "and consequently are more fruitful."

The class meets twice a month—the first and the third Tuesdays—at the homes of members. It is a non-profit class and any girl is welcome to attend.

Mrs. Korell, who can still be considered a newcomer to Niles, as she and her husband moved out to their home in Adobe Acres only last April, has done professional modeling and has made a study of the development of personality as well as poise and good grooming.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at the home of Jean Hindmarsh, and the meeting on December 18 at the home of Elaine Thornburg. Other girls already in the class are Marilyn Walker, Jacquie Real, Bonnie Jean Anderson, Georgia Rose Anderson and Diane Hygelund.

Mrs. Korell stated that she would be glad to answer any telephone inquiries concerning the class.

COUNTRY CLUB SECTION DISCUSSES RACE QUESTION AT BOOK REVIEW

As always, when a book on the racial question comes up for discussion the members of the Arts Appreciation Section of the Country Club sailed in with gusto last Wednesday night when they discussed the autobiographical book, "Black Boy," by Richard Wright.

Mr. Wright's book evoked some spirited comments from the members, all of whom are women who are acknowledged to be no shrinking violets when expressing their opinions. Consequently there were times when the discussion was taken right out of the hands of the leader, Mrs. Joe Svoboda, who managed, however, to steer a fairly smooth course during the evening.

The author who, of course, is the main character, won the admiration of those who read the book for his indomitable spirit in rising above the squalor and poverty of his childhood in the south to become one of the world's fifty best living writers for the year 1950.

In discussing his life, the lives of other Negroes who have risen above their environment naturally came up for consideration, among them the comely coed at the University of Illinois who was recently named Homecoming Queen.

Those at the meeting were in accord, at the conclusion of the lively and wholly stimulating evening, that, though the Negro problem is still a problem, it nevertheless should not be regarded with a too pessimistic outlook. As one of the members of the Section stated at the meeting, "With the Negroes moving to different parts of the country as they are doing—thereby breaking up the concentration of their people in one section of the country—they will gradually be absorbed in the cultur and community life of the 'whites' without any apparent upheaval.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roland Bendel, with Mrs. John Whipple as co-hostess. Members of the Country Club who would care to join this discussion group may do so by contacting the chairman of the group, Mrs. Howard Overacker.

New Kraftile Man Likes California

Soon-to-be residents of Niles are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wild and three sons.

Mr. Wild, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, is already in Niles, having taken the position as ceramic engineer for the Kraftile Company. His wife and children expect to arrive from Cleveland as soon as their furniture gets here. They will take up a temporary residence in one of the cottages at the Kraftile plant.

The new ceramic engineer, formerly with the Ferro Enamel Company in Cleveland, was in the Army Air Corps in World War II, and received his discharge with the rank of Captain.

The couple's three children are: James, 6, Steve, 3, and Gregory, 2.

Mr. Wild says about California, "I'll trade for the transitory showers we're having and cheerfully give up the snow and ice storms without complaint. The green growing things and the scenery here are wonderful, and I can say without reservation, I'm glad I'm here!"

Planes Home

Lt. (jg) Roland Bendel planed home last week-end from San Diego and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel of Niles.

New Niles Resident

Entering the ranks of parents this week were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Enos of Niles, whose six pound, 13 ounce son, Gerald Robert, was born November 27 at San Jose Hospital. Equally joyful over the event are the first-time grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dias of Niles. Mrs. Enos is the former Winifred Dias.

WASHINGTON CAGE SEASON UNDER WAY HERE ON TUESDAY

The Washington High varsity and lightweight squads will embark upon a 23-game basketball schedule Tuesday afternoon when they are hosts to the Menlo squads in a double-header scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

The two squads will each have an opportunity to play eight games before they open their Santa Clara Valley Athletic League play on January 11 against Live Oak.

Varsity Coach Clyde Voorhees will have one letterman back from last season. He is Lloyd Davis, veteran guard. Three other seniors who will undoubtedly see action are Jim Faletti, Jess Martinez and Lee Walton. Antoine Rigmaiden, who had some varsity experience last year, is expected to work together with Jim Bolivia, Jess Martinez and Tony Nieves, who are up from last year's B's.

Voorhees will also eye three new transfer students, Sophomores Ronny Flatt and Larry Stewart, and a junior, Bob Lundsford.

Voorhees said this week that he is planning to use as many Sophomores as possible this season in order to build a stronger club for the next two seasons.

Prospects are a little brighter for Coach Don Wolfe's B squad. He will have three lettermen, Raul Orozco, Frank Galvan and Dick Arrington, back in the line-up, along with Frank Murakami and Dan Encallado, who had some action last season.

Up from the C and D squads are Ray Orozco, Frank Senn and James Andrade. A transfer student who is also expected to see action is Gordon Agrella.

SIXTH STRAIGHT VICTORY FOR CATS

By TONY ROGERS

The Bear Cat Baseball Club of Centerville won its sixth straight league victory 5 to 4 over the Cooks Union nine in a seven-inning game at McConnell Field Sunday afternoon.

The game was called in the seventh because of darkness, rain and wet grounds.

It took the combined efforts of John Garcia, Stan Roderick and Hillard Rose on the mound to win.

Garcia went into the fifth inning with a 4 to 1 lead, ran into trouble by giving up two runs and leaving the bases loaded with one out when Roderick took over without benefit of a warm-up.

Roderick struck out the first batter to face him but hit the next man, forcing across the tying run. He ended the inning by fanning the third batter.

The Cats came back in their half of the sixth and scored the run that won the game. Dutra opened the frame with a walk, was sacrificed to second by H. Rose and came across the plate on Len Smith's double down the left field line.

Hillard Rose pitched the remainder of the game, allowing one hit and striking out three men.

Garcia led the team at bat, getting two hits in three tries and driving in three runs. Roderick was credited with his fourth straight victory.

CHANGE IN PLANS

Perhaps everyone is wondering why I spent a quiet day at home on Thanksgiving when my column last week read that I had motored to San Leandro for the holiday. The truth of the matter was that the day before Thanksgiving, my daughter came down with the mumps and I found myself enjoying a delicious chicken instead of the traditional turkey. But I'm not complaining, mind you, I am thankful my sons didn't come down with the mumps along with Diane. Now I'm keeping my fingers crossed for the Christmas holidays since I learned that my folks are coming from Los Angeles to spend a week with us at that time.

It was announced this week that Joe Carey has accepted the position of Decoto Sanitary District maintenance man. The position was temporarily filled by Mr. Paniagua after the resignation of his son, Gonsalves. Gonsalves accepted a position a month ago for a private concern. Mr. Carey, who will begin his duties on December 1, operated a service station on the Niles-Decoto highway until several months ago when he leased the business to Donald Shanks of Niles.

Hillview... and You

By FRANK VONDERWERTH

Glad to see you once again. Now you must excuse me if this seems a little dull. I have been really busy these past few days, especially since last Tuesday morning. Yes, yours truly was pushed gratis twenty feet down the highway by a passing motorist who was going fifty or so. This goes to show us all the importance of a light on this often used corner. Maybe this is locking the door after the horse is gone, but there is always the next guy. Why the people of this community, small as it is, have to go on day after day without a light, and hoping every time you go by you will make it, is really a mystery to me. Can't the people in charge see the necessity of a signal? Or is there an election coming up in the near future? Don't get me wrong, I am not writing about me, just thinking of the number of people who are going by every day. Think, too, when you have your children in the car. So, for your own sake, be careful, be cautious when you come in or out. How true, the life you save may be your own.

BIRTH OF AN ASSOCIATION

Here is something big, and you all should be in it. For your own protection and your property protection. Yes, the Association is a big wonderful thing for the people of Hillview. There are many things it has in mind, many things to do, and the best of all, these things are for the benefit of you and you and all the rest, too. King Cole, over on Champlain, is the temporary chairman of the board, so he would be the fellow to get your advice from, in case you need some. And he has my vote to be the permanent one. Never saw a fellow spend so much time and energy for the helping of so many people. Just talk to him and you will find a guy with a heart as big as he is. And he is one big fellow. I know you will read this, King, so keep up the good work, we are all behind you.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

We said there were many things the Association has to do. Well, there isn't space here to put them all down, but if you were unable to attend the meeting the other night, here are a few things in mind: Number one, and I think for personal reasons it should be number one, a traffic light at the entrance to the Village. Then, a meeting place for us to come together right here near home. And that would be down on the vacant lot. Then that playground and swimming pool for the kids. This is very important because I know how you feel about a place for the kids to play safely. Also, the Association will help you with any advice you might need regarding your home. I can't tell you what a wonderful thing the Association is and I hope you will be able to see your way clear to join it. There are some more plans in mind and if you are interested, be sure and attend the next meeting, at which there will be an election of officers. Watch this column for the date and place.

THANKS

My thanks to the people of Hillview for their response to this bit of news that comes to you every week. We are even getting fan mail all the way from Niles. Mrs. Bendel writes to us there will be a program of music by the U. C. Glee Club at the Country Club on Parish Avenue in Centerville. This affair will take place Sunday afternoon, December 2. And best of all there will be a buffet supper after. There is a small charge, which is only right, so if you wish to go, contact Mrs. L. Whitaker in Niles. All are invited so please contact Mrs. Whitaker as soon as possible. Mrs. Bendel, thank you for your personal invitation, but we will be unable to attend as Mrs. Vonderwerth and I will be out of town that day and also the next two. See you at the next one, though.

NEW FRIENDS

Here are a couple of people I would like you to meet. Really nice folks. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scott, 1332 Carroll Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Baca, also of Carroll Drive. By the way, the Bacas have a new baby boy two and a half months. I'll have to keep an eye on that fellow, I have a daughter you know. Mr. Scott is a camera man and just recently became a member of the Hayward Camera Club. Wonder if he would look at my camera and tell me what is the matter with the darn thing?

LAST CHAPTER

Just a reminder to let you give some thought to the Association. Just a reminder to help you be careful at the entrance to the village, the life you save may be yours. See you next week, same station.

By a Congressional act in 1853 California was granted 46,000 acres of land for the benefit of a "seminary of learning" and 6000 acres for public buildings.

FAMED BALLET WILL APPEAR THURSDAY

The Sadler's Wells Theatre Ballet is the great event of the entire season for the ballet world, from coast to coast. The famous group from Great Britain will arrive in San Jose for a single performance of "Coppelia" on Thursday evening, December 6, in the auditorium. The enchanting Elaine Fifield will dance the famous role of Swanhilda, with David Poole as Frantz. Comments of critics and audience alike. as the large company travels in its 14-car special across the continent, are that this Sadler's Wells Company is "definitely on a par with last year's group, and that in some respects it is much superior."

Olivia de Haviland will be seen in persons in the famous role of "Candida," the Bernard Shaw play which has starred many of the world's greatest actresses, on Sunday evening, December 16, in the San Jose auditorium. The story deals with the "eternal triangle," the woman who has to choose between her clergyman husband and the 18-year-old poet who loves her.

Tickets for both events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

LIVESTOCK RAISED HERE INADEQUATE

Livestock slaughter in the western states has doubled since 1925.

In spite of this expansion the Pacific Coast is still not producing and marketing enough livestock to meet rapid population growth.

Edwin C. Voorhies, professor of agricultural economics, University of California College of Agriculture, brought out these facts in a speech at the 33rd annual meeting of the California Farm Bureau in San Diego recently. Voorhies is a member of the Western Livestock Marketing Research Committee engaged in research of livestock markets in the western states.

One of the major projects of the committee has been the study of auctions in the western states and Texas. From 1940 to 1949 sales more than tripled. In California the sales followed the same pattern. During the same period the number of auctions in California jumped from 21 to 72 per year.

In spite of this the Pacific States need to go farther east for enough livestock to meet the demands.

RITES MONDAY FOR MRS. HERMAN PERRY

Funeral services were held in Niles Monday for Mrs. Antoinette Perry, 41, of Niles, who died November 21 following a lingering illness.

She was the wife of Herman Perry; mother of Mrs. Ernest Andrade, Alvarado, Morris Perry, Niles, Mrs. Alvina Rissman, San Leandro, Pvt. Eddie Perry, U. S. Army, Japan, Melvin, Armand and Sharon Perry, all of Niles. She was a native of Portugal.

Funeral services were held from the parlors of the Berge Mortuary Company, followed by a requiem mass at Corpus Christi Church. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

CHILD'S EMOTIONAL HONESTY IMPORTANT

Emotional honesty is just as important to cultivate as is intellectual honesty or any other kind of honesty.

This is the firm belief of Dr. Nora Weckler, formerly of the psychology department of Maryland University and now a member of the teaching staff of University of California Extension in Los Angeles.

"Often, however, parents encourage emotional dishonesty in their children by punishing them for expressions of hatred or resentment," says Dr. Weckler, who will elaborate on the point during a series of lectures on Mental Hygiene for Parents she will give for University of California Extension beginning this week.

"When Johnny announces he hates his baby brother, parents are not teaching him to love the baby by telling him that he is naughty or that he should love the baby because he is his brother. Such reprimands may cause him to change his behavior to disguise his feelings from others and even from himself, but they will not change his feelings.

"On the other hand, if Johnny is allowed to express his anger in some fashion without fear of punishment or of loss of parental love, he gets it out of his system. And because he is being honest, his parents will know how he feels.

JOHN P. FARIA TAKEN BY DEATH

John P. Faria, 78, of Milpitas, a former long-time resident of Mission San Jose, died Tuesday following a lengthy illness.

He was the husband of the late Catherine Faria; father of Mrs. Adeline Faria of Milpitas, Mrs. Catherine Telles of Mission San Jose, Mrs. Mamie Brown of Mt. View, Mrs. Florence Klechka of Tracy, Mrs. Evelyn Lucas and John P. Faria Jr., both of Niles. He is also survived by seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

He was a native of the Azore Islands and a member of I.D.E.S. Council No. 1 and St. Anthony's Society, both of Mission San Jose.

Funeral services will be held at the parlors of the Berge Mortuary in Irvington at 8:30 a.m. today (Friday), followed by a requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church, Mission San Jose, at 9 o'clock. Interment will be at St. Joseph's Cemetery.
